Children's Booklist Shocking Distortion of Culture and History

Do you know what is in the books you choose for Christmas for the young people on your gift list? You'd better know, if you do not wish them subjected to socialist propaganda, to deliberate distortion of our history and culture.

Take the New York Times special magazine section on Children's Books under date of November 8, 1970, which contains the names of most of the publishers in the eastern part of the United States together with book titles and a thumb-nail sketch of each book.

Perhaps the most arresting title of all is 'A Chanukah Fable for Christmas' "with a Santa Claus who looks like Moshe Dayan." This is the exact wording from the full, narrow column advertisement which quotes from the "Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books" (whatever that is). "Fun to read. The illustrations are lively, the parody salty." Did you ever think of St. Nicholas as "salty"? And resembling Moshe Dayan to boot?

Another book for Christmas giving is The Forgotten Minority, a collection of gems from the writings of Hamlin Garland, Arthur Schlesinger Jr., Carey McWilliams, et al. Then two books — Small Hands, Big Hands and Migrant Girl — glorify the machinations of Cesar Chavez against the California grape growers. Householders who now pay more for table grapes will find it difficult to rejoice over Chavez' successes.

Then there is the plight of young black Americans. "Richard Wright reveals his harrowing frustrations as a youth in Mississippi; Daisy Bates in prose of remarkable beauty, tells about her mother's brutal death; Malcolm X describes his disgust that a top student like himself was encouraged by his teacher to be 'realistic' and to aspire to nothing more than menial work." Merry Christmas to all! Merry Christmas indeed! Have these malcontents ever reflected upon what their lives would have been if they had been born in the Congo?

One Honest Reviewer

In an outburst of honesty, one reviewer — describing the books being offered our young generation — says: "Children are fascinated by origins, with where they came from; why Jews and Arabs are killing each other on television, how it all began is a theme of constant interest . . . the theme can break through bookish bounds and lead the child to understand how past events have made his world; what it is and how his maturing actions will make the next what it will be." The implication in these words is clear enough. Do you wonder that so much revolutionary change is advocated by the very young?

If you cannot afford the more expensive books, there are plenty of paper backs to continue the work of propaganda and/or demoralization. Catcher in the Rye is mentioned as a new classic for teenagers. The reviewer adds that Catcher in the Rye has supplanted Penrod (and to our loss, it might be added).

Recent and recommended is Andy and the Lion; it is a brisk, modern take-off, according to the ad (robbed of its great original moral lesson). "Andy" does not of course refer to Andy Hardy. It is short for Androcles whose name alone would have established the classic atmosphere associated with the story. Strangely enough, there is another publisher who has come out with the proper Androcles and the Lion which has the virtue of adhering to the ancient Roman tale, illustrated by woodcuts. In fact there seems to be a preoccupation with lions. Arno Bontemps, old reliable of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, book lists, has still another lion story: Mr. Kelso's Lion.

Returning to the subject of paper backs, the Times Children's Book Section runs a long article mentioning the Xerox-owned Weekly Reader which is sold to 100,000 classrooms throughout this nation. A recent issue in the fall of 1970 contained reference to policemen as "pigs" and was officially protested by the official state organization of police officers in New Jersey. It is interesting to note that this article discusses the phenomenon of the "revolt" caused by paper backs which has shifted the library

Misfortune Of Modern Youth

By FRED FARREL

The youth fads of our day are manufactured by Jewish intellectuals. The New Left press, so influential among youth, is financed by Jewish money and staffed by Jewish personnel. In absence of any strong Gentile counter influence, American Gentile youth has fallen almost entirely under the Jewish spell. Their own elders seem to be empty-headed bores, who occasionally erupt and spout a few slogans before lapsing back into a comatose state. Indeed, the so-called grownups of America, brainwashed by TV and other infantile media, often seem to be nothing but a sort of "grownup children" themselves. Thus our Gentile youth, for lack of any strong positive influences emanating from their own elders, have fallen strongly under Jewish influence.

Youth Being Systematically Destroyed

The Jews are going about the business of destroying Gentile youth in a systematic manner. Untold thousands of adolescents have been swindled into running away from home by propaganda which leads them to believe that they will come to a hippie paradise, where people throw flowers at each other all the time. When they have arrived in "paradise" they are set upon by jackrollers, footpads, muggers, and heisters who relieve them of whatever money they have brought with them. Their fresh, healthy young bodies are then thrown into the meat-grinder of urban slum vice. They are not introduced to mere immorality. They are destroyed.

A recent issue of Newsweek relates the case of a teen-age boy who ran away from home. He fell into the hands of an older homosexual, who injected into him regular doses of an estrogenic female hormone. The boy's breast tissue began to develop so that he took on the appearance of a girl. Today he is a complete sexual vegetable, referred to by his friends as "IT." About one million runaway teen-agers are living in the streets of our cities today.

Even those who do not run away feel a strong pull from the drug culture. Drug addiction is rampant. Sexual depravity is also multiplying, encouraged by the spate of Jew-written and Jew-published pornography. Present-day pornography isn't pornography at all in the classic sense. It does not aim merely to teach vice; rather it aims to produce people who are incapable of the practice of any worthwhile kind of virtue and at the same time equally incapable of the practice of any normal ians' influence to the teachers, with "kids" actually making the choices for book clubs such as Scholastic on the basis not of what they should like but rather on what they do like. This accounts for the steady deterioration in taste (and quite possibly, in conduct) which we see on every side. This is a trend that threatens the quality of a young reader's life. And the shift, one might add, is not only from the librarian to the teacher but from the teacher to the drug store display. The person who buys books as gifts can help reverse this shift.

Weird Titles

Some of the themes elaborated on in the books listed in the Times Book Section are so dreary that they are absurd: The Mimosa Tree is laid in rural, white North Carolina; the crops have been hit by a blight; the Profitt family's pigs have been poisoned by a neighbor; they have an epileptic friend. (Somehow the author could not work in reference to the bomb that fell on Hiroshima!).

Then there is another example: Simon and the Game of Chance. It has "truth, humor and pathos." Don't forget pathos—anything to make Christmas merry!

Some of the topics are so lurid that they seem inappropriate in the celebration of Christ's birth. One such is V.D. Facts You Should Know. "Almost 100,000 people infected by syphilis each year; 1,500,000 infected by gonorrhea. Frank, implicit, tastefully written." What an exciting way to start Christmas morning with a tastefully written book on V.D.

Or perhaps you would prefer one of three books on pregnant girls: Phoebe, Yesterday's Child or The Longest Weekend. The possibilities would seem to be endless. Finally there is Are You There God? — a real teen story with stirrings of desire unencumbered by narrow-focused sex, it says. Perhaps this teen age girl should read the preceding three books. Or, it might just be simpler to declare a moratorium on book publishing for the young folks until we gain some perspective.

A run-down of other books mentioned includes The Black BC's, the many ways in which black people and their culture have enriched American life. Don't bother to look for a book pointing out the Anglo-Saxon contributions (our language and legal system). But you will find one — Feast of the Serpent — which treats of Cromwell's Civil War and a young girl who finds herself accused of being a witch.

And would you believe it, they are still fighting the Nazis: Code Polonaise is the story of a band of children moving through Warsaw's ruins, resisting Nazi conquerors. No publisher seems to want to put out a book on the children of the officers executed in that mass grave in the Katyn Forest. Perhaps that would be too harrowing a theme for Christmas. But there is another "hate" book (the kind that makes Liberals so resentful when their toes are stepped on): His Enemy; His Friend — a story of occupied France. A German soldier befriends a boy whose father he later helps to execute as a hostage. How's that for a twist? And there is a third hair-raiser: Frederick, set in Nazi Germany between 1925 and 1940.

Whenever anti-Nazi themes pall, there is always the South to be belabored. Thus The Rock and the Willow has a girl growing up in a large, very poor farm family in Alabama during the Depression and living through rain and drought. To Be a Slave is the other side of the coin, being a narrative of men, women and children who underwent slavery in Africa and then in America.

Nip and Tuck Battle

It is really nip and tuck between the bad Nazis and our own bad Establishment — with our own society getting perhaps the worst deal of all: Henry 3 is suburbia as seen through the eyes of a bright boy — the son of a successful corporation executive who takes a hard look at his parents' life style and decides he'll never compromise himself for social position. (Why must he be compromised, one asks, thinking of great and successful men like the noted philanthropist, George Eastman). No Promises in the Wind depicts a boy and his younger brother hitchhiking, riding freights, etc. What grist for Soviet Russia and our enemies in Hanoi! And Run Softly, Go Fast is the saga of a young runaway from the Establishment (as described in the advertisement's own words). Then there is Groner, an 11-year-old boy whose mother commits suicide and who must handle the resulting instability of the father. Ox is the story of a kid at the top: affluence and alcoholism in the family; a very fat, unhappy boy whose wealthy father whisks him on a jet-set odyssey from Palm Beach to California. And No Easy Answers is the story of a young radical whose father, an Army colonel, is arrested by the Military Police for stealing a secret weapon. (And all this time, I thought the Rosenbergs did that!). Clearly, things are bad all over.

CESAR CHAVEZ, radical would-be representative of the California grape pickers, whose unlawful efforts to force organized unionism on unwilling grape pickers has brought near economic chaos to the grape growers, and victimized and antagonized the workers. The well paid grape pickers, groaning under a five year strike, fear constant union violence and heartless destruction of their property.

Naturally there are many books on racial themes that cast the white population in an uncomplimentary light: Thus, Dwellers in the Tundra is described as "a painfully honest commentary with photographs showing how the white men irretrievably changed a once proud Alaskan village into a ghetto of the frontier. (A ghetto of the frontier is quite an expression).

Indian America, on the Black Hawk War, tells the tragic story of the white man's relations with the Indians, while Sing Down the Moon is a Navaho story of an Indian girl and her people after Spanish slavers and white soldiers destroy their way of life. But the publishers got their signals crossed when they published The Discoveries of Esteban the Black who became the first man of the Old World to enter the Southwest. Let's hope he keeps the Spanish soldiers in check!

From Moshe Dayan to Satan himself — they run the gamut. Anything goes in this Christless Christmas Book review. Above drawing is taken from All About Story Book, a giant story book of thirteen fairy tales.

Just to show how fair we are, we mention two historical themes from our Colonial America which actually did get published: Peggy (who married Benedict Arnold) is described as calculating, beautiful and bitchy. Yes, these are the exact words. "Bitchy" does seem a bit indelicate for children. Then Two If by Sea is the story of Paul Revere and his heroic associates "with their worries and foibles" carefully included.

Would you believe it? Eleanor Frances Lattimore (wife of Dr. Owen Lattimore of the notorious Institute of Pacific Relations) has a new book, Three Firecrackers; and right below her advertisement is listed Millicent E. Selsam's The Tomato and Other Fruit Vegetables. Mrs. Selsam's Egg to Chick is an old-timer, advertised through many Christmas seasons. She is the wife of Howard Selsam, instructor at the Jefferson School of the Social Sciences; and her books have long been sold at the Communist Book Shop on E. 13th St., New York City. Then there is Mazes by Muriel Rukeyser. Anyone having access to the 1948 California Report on Un-American Activities can find additional information on Howard and Muriel.

A Sad Situation

This, then, is the situation in Children's books as offered to the Christmas trade.

They represent the choices of the best minds in the business but many of these books are negative in approach, unrepresentative and critical of our country and of our institutions — or completely irrelevant (such as Joseph and Kosa or the Sacrifice to the Vistula by highly promoted Isaac Bashevis Singer) in an age that demands RELEVANCE!

The New York Times repeatedly says Give Books as Gifts for Children. We urge you to read them first if you care about the influences to which their impressionable minds may be subjected. And weigh particularly whether they are fitting and proper for the season which celebrates the birth of Our Lord.

Perhaps it would be better to visit a second hand book store to find copies of Zane Grey's western tales or Anne of Green Gables. But to end on a note of hope, let's be grateful that Jon and Gunnar Myrdal have not yet written for the juvenile market.

Common Sense"

Benjamin Franklin Warned Us!

"In whatever country Jews have settled in any great numbers, they have lowered its moral tone, depreciated its commercial integrity, have segregated themselves and have not been assimilated, have sneered at and tried to undermine the Christian religion, have built up a state within a state, and have, when opposed, tried to strangle that country to death financially.

"If you do not exclude them from the United States in the Constitution, in less than 200 years they will have swarmed in in such great numbers that they will dominate and devour the land and change our form of government.

"If you do not exclude them, in less than 200 years our descendants will be working in the fields to furnish the substance while they will be in the counting house rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews for all time, your children will curse you in your graves. Jews, gentlemen, are Asiatics; they will never be otherwise."

The above is taken from an address delivered by Benjamin Franklin before the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia in 1787.

kind of vice. It aims to kill. Above all else, it aims to destroy the Gentile youth of America, so that they will not be able to compete with the Jewish youth of America.

The sinister forces of child-destruction thread their way through our system of jurisprudence. A young Huck Finn who went swimming in the raw in a country stream was sentenced to three years in a state reformatory, where he would be sure to learn all about homosexuality. Youngsters who tear off their clothes and dance in the raw at a rock festival are not molested. It is innocence which is to be destroyed. The Juvenile Court System, from one end of the country to the other, is busy doing the Jewish job on hapless Gentile youth. Of course our whole legal system is under Jewish domination today. Watch the funny little men who sit on judicial benches bow and scrape when some notorious Jewish racketeer comes into the courtroom!

Public Education Is Dead

The only subject being taught well in American public schools today is racial interbreeding. For the rest of it, public education is dead in the U.S.A. In the future, only Jewish children will be educated in private schools. The Goyim will not be deemed to be in need of any education.

Adult Goyim, when they see these things being done to their children, do not fight back. They retreat into slogan-howling. They howl about "free enterprise" and "Red Russia." These things are not being done to our children by "foreign agents" from "Red Russia." The evil things are being done to our children by the AMERICAN JEWS. The Jews also finance and operate "refuges" for runaway children in several of our big cities. These have the purported aim of "helping" runaway children. Newsweek reports that one such institution helped a steelworker "negotiate" with his runaway son. The boy was to return home, provided he would be allowed to attend Maoist rallies twice a week.

Personally, I favor the sort of "negotiations" which were carried on in the English schools back in the days of Rudyard Kipling. Every school had a whipping block, where errant young feet were corrected and set upon the paths of rectitude, patriotism, and right behaviour. The hordes of runaway minors should be rounded up in a businesslike manner and returned to their parents. Some of the parents are mentally little better than children themselves. What do you expect of a nation of TV addicts? Still, parents should be made responsible for their cubs.

The Jewish-financed "refuges" for runaway minors are operated along "liberal" lines. Musn't say "no" to any child about anything. There is to be no discipline (except among Jewish children). A Gentile father who whips his recalcitrant son is sometimes jailed; but a fourteen-year-old girl who is beaten to death by a rapist in a vice slum, after running away from home, goes unavenged. Her body is donated to the medical school, to be dissected by medical students. The poor lad who beat her to death with a bludgeon must not be arrested, of course; he probably was misunderstood when he was a child.

We have entered upon a period of accelerated destruction of Gentile youth in America. Why don't Gentile parents do something about it? They don't really want to do anything about it. They don't care. All they want is to gallop in their childish herds after some silly quack who calls himself a "great patriot" or a "great anti-Communist" and who tickles their lowest class vanities. They adore Spiro T. Agnew, and ignore the fact that the same forces which set Eldridge Cleaver into motion also set Spiro T. Agnew into motion. Our children are the victims of the political and racial suicidalism of their parents.

Eldridge Cleaver, revolutionary Marxist Black Panther and Vice President Spiro Agnew are both spawned by the same establishment forces.

To me, the suicidalism of our degenerate Goy Bourgeois is an appalling spectacle. They are like lemmings rushing to fling themselves over a cliff and into the sea, there to die. Off hand, it would seem that they have a great deal to live for. Driving through their pleasant streets, among their endless rows of expensive houses, one sees the evidence of their material prosperity. Why do they want to destroy themselves? Do they not have an air-conditioner and a dishwasher? Do they not have a V-8 Jew Canoe in practically every driveway?

It is useless to argue with our suicidal Goy Bourgeois. A lemming knows how to be a lemming. He knows instinctively that the right thing to do is to throw himself over a cliff and swim out to sea to drown. Just so, the suicidal American Gentile Bourgeois is a better and more successful lemming than I am. He has no interest in the preservation of his jejune and mediocre kind. He knows instinctively that the right thing to do is to smoke it up, finish it off.

Whittaker Chambers said in his book Cold Friday that these people will persecute anyone who tries to save them. They will do just that. Last summer, I made the experiment myself. I went among some of our wealthy Goy Bourgeoisie and tried to persuade them to stop committing suicide. They were enraged. I am not very vulnerable and suffered little from the persecutions, which ensued in a practically automatic manner. Still, I became satisfied that Chambers was right. Our Goy Bourgeois do not want to be saved. They want to commit mass suicide. Perhaps this will be the best thing, after all.

The suicide of the lemmings prevents the world from being overrun by too many lemmings. The suicide of our jejune Goy Bourgeois will prevent the world from being overrun by too many humbugs and bores.

What do I have to say to such people. We non-suicidal types are simply "not with it." We are outsiders to the game. Our suicidal bourgeois will enjoy every second of the game. They will run to the edge of the precipice and fling themselves into the abyss with an élan which I myself could never manage. As they fall to their doom they will shout one last slogan taught them by Barry Goldwater or Robert Welch. It is useless to tell them that the Right Wing does not really fight Communism, that the great capitalists have always been secretly the real financial backers of world Communism. Useless to tell them that the Right Wing is just as much a part of the Jewish conspiracy as the Left Wing. They and the Jews are headed together toward Auschwitz. They are a race of lemmings and know more about being lemmings than I do. Why should I think that I have anything to say to them? They obviously understand the matter at hand better than I. They know how to commit mass suicide.

GOLDEN HERITAGE

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if on brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust;

But, if we work upon immortal minds and imbue them with principles, with the just fear of GOD and love of our fellow man, we engrave on those tablets something that will brighten to all eternity.

— Daniel Webster

Poor Do Not Hate Rich

The Right-Left orientation of their political thinking was bound to drive them to suicide. The Right and the Left are the twin columns which support the structure of Jewish power. Without either of these two columns, the whole structure of Jewish power would fall. There is no reason for the existence of either the Right or the Left except to support Jewish power. The shallow Goy bourgeois tells us that "It's the way things are. The poor and worthless are on the Left. The provident and well-to-do are on the Right." This is sheer nonsense. The poor do not hate the rich. The poor always admire a rich man, especially if the rich man is a great rascal.

There isn't and never has been any "revolution" arising out of the rebellion of the poor against the rich. "The revolution" was supported from the beginning by the great capitalists. The Marxist trade unions and the Marxist political parties have always been run by the great banks. The poor are always utterly reactionary. What the oppressed of the earth want is an oppressor who is really on to his job, who will oppress them with real savoir faire, and will not bug them with liberal nonsense, which is chiefly of interest to the middle class, not to the poor.

Today our Goy bourgeois are complete political suicides. They have fallen into the clutches of the Yids; but the Yids are also suicidal.

Here is the real misfortune of youth. They have been born into a suicidal society, a society bent upon the destruction of itself. Wistfully they put forth buds, hoping to establish contact with something good, something noble, something true. They find only the foulness of death and decay. They go into church buildings to find the Bride of Christ; instead, they find some pipsqueak so-called clergyman busy doing the ideological dirty work of wealthy Jews. They buy books, hoping to find a clue to life and reality; instead, they find the imbecilities of Jewish hack writers. They look into politics, hoping to find worthy leaders of the nation; instead, they see shabbos Goyim like Nixon and Agnew.

Clearly, those of us who are not suicidal will have to split off from the bourgeois culture. The Right-Left culture is clearly doomed. Indeed, a society which allows itself to be manipulated by such shallow charlatany is gravely defective. For a hundred years, our Goy bourgeois have been galloping around the landscape with ideological fire-extinguishers in hand, busily putting out non-existent revolutionary fires. They have accomplished nothing except to get themselves firmly into the clutches of the Jews, who invented and have always controlled both the Right and the Left.

Those of us who are not suicidal have a goal. We shall knock down the twin columns of Right and Left which support the edifice of Jewish power. Thus we shall break the backbone of Jewish power in the world. The suicidal bourgeois will say that this is "destructive." Indeed it is. How else can we destroy Jewish power, except through an act of destruction?

We shall take the golden prize of world historical initiative away from the Jews, and we will toss it high into the air. Many hands will reach for it as it falls to earth again, and the strongest and best hands on the scene will grab it. The Jews will be no more a power in the world. We do not fear or hesitate to commit the act of intellectual sabotage which will destroy them. We are against the world order which they seek to establish, and we will not be seduced into worthless slogan-howling. We will not be channelized.

How It Might Happen

A mature observer can see things more clearly today, than probably at any other time in history. The events that unfold before us are definitely the final steps of the anti-Christ and they exploit his disciples here on earth.

I believe they have three final moves to make before the final kill.

1. Pass the genocide treaty to outlaw all forms of Anti-Semitism (an improper word for it); by doing so, it would prevent history from repeating itself; as for example Germany back in the 1930's. Undoubtedly there will be a great depression here in America, which in turn would affect the entire world. People from all walks of life will soon be out of jobs, food and money. With desperate people roving about, there is a good chance that we might be able to reach the people, finally, with the truth in regard to the cause of world unrest and most definitely the spotlight will fall on the Jew.

Presently the people are too wrapped up in the false prosperity we've been living under since the Federal Reserve Act of 1913 was passed. They are too engrossed with their outboards, their vacations, skiing trips, colored televisions, nights-out-on-the-town, etc., and it is next to impossible to communicate with people who are eating good, drinking good and living good. But when the crash comes and they lose all these toys and they begin to feel the gas pains entering into their stomachs, they will no longer rationalize the problem, but instead will listen, follow and obey the man, who like Hitler, will explain to them for the first time all the things that the "chosen-few" have been doing behind their backs. This is one reason why the Genocide Treaty must first be made effective so that there will never be a chance of an Adolf Hitler arising here in America as he did in Germany. Anyone shouting "Communism Is Jewish" under the Genocide treaty will be LEGALLY apprehended and taken away to a distant place, never to be heard from again.

2. Next there will be more assassinations of the left wing darlings, like we have had in the past with such people as John and Bobby Kennedy, Martin King. The "Alien Eastern establishment" will probably shoot someone such as Teddy Kennedy, George McGovern, William Fulbright, Goldberg, Abernathy, etc.; this will serve a two fold purpose: a.) They, (the chosen few) will automatically blame this atrocity on the RIGHT WING, by continually having "THEIR" news media shouting this to people; they can skip over the legal procedures of law and start a purge of all the leaders of the right, e.g. leaders of the Klan: the NSRP; the Minutemen, etc.; the patriots of America who possess the ability and quality of leadership will all be picked up and sentenced or murdered, such as Robert DePugh, Robert Shelton, without a hearing and with the news media continually screaming to the public for blood. There should be little resistance from the public about this disgraceful injustice. With all our leaders dead or in some far away prison the rest of the true patriots will be too intimidated and harassed to be effective in trying to reach the masses of people with the unpopular truth as to what has really taken place and what is in store for them.

This all leads up to step number 3. After a few more of these leftists have been assassinated, once again the cry for more gun legislation will be heard. This time with all the gusto they have, they will try to take away, literally take from us, our firearms of all shapes and sizes. And you can be sure, that the penalty for not complying will be a serious federal offense.

The present situation is made to order for stricter legislation not only for guns, but gun powder and all other types of explosives because of the chaos that the S.D.S. is leading us into with blowing up things: e.g. induction centers, ROTC buildings, court houses, themselves, etc., etc.;

this could bring on such a state of fear, that the entire U. S. of America could fall under martial law. This could bring the troops from overseas back home in a hurry. And one day you would wake up and find the streets of your city or town lined with our soldiers who would be acting only upon the orders of the Commander-in-chief and his orders, (or the orders of those who run him), would be that of a dictator. We would be subjugated by our very own troops. Our own sons and brothers would be forced to obey the orders of the Commander-in-chief and they would come with orders to take this man and that man and without knowing or understanding why, have him imprisoned or even shot. If they refused to obey, they would then be apprehended and imprisoned or shot. Things would be happening so fast, that they (the troops themselves) wouldn't know what to make of it.

Already the purge is on. Robert DePugh is sitting in prison for a crime they think he was thinking about doing. Since when can they put you in jail for what you are thinking?

Let us examine the twin cases of Gus Hall and Robert Shelton. After refusing to show the records of the people in the Communist party to the H.U.A.C., Hall was sentenced. He appealed to the Supreme Court and was vindicated. The same story is true for Robert Shelton of the Klan except the Supreme Court sentenced him to one year in prison, on the same grounds they released Hall on. They were both indicted for the same reason; they refused to hand over the records of the names of the people in their organization yet Hall and his communists get off and the Christian patriots go to prison. Now ask yourself, is there justice in this country? After much destruction of property and the starting of riots during the National Democratic Convention and on top of all that, using profanity in the court room that was so gross, Newsweek, Time, Life and Look couldn't even print it; Abbie Hoffman, Jerry Rubin and the rest of the Jewish Rat Pack are out roaming the streets of America encouraging the youth to break every law from crossing the street on a red light, to murdering their own parents. But who will we find in prison??? The Abbie Hoffmans? The Jerry Rubins? No, not them, we find Robert DePugh. Why? Because he had illegal weapons? No, that's not the reason, the reason is that he's one of us. A white Christian Patriot, a leader with great potential. So, with our freedom of speech taken away by the Genocide Treaty; our right to defend ourselves with the use of firearms to be taken away; the thought of our own army being used against us, it looks extremely dark for white Christian America. Let us not forget the leaflets that were being distributed during the Watts riot in 1960 which read: "We'll kill all the white men and rape all the white women."

With the Black Plague moving in on us in the form of the Black Panthers and their associates, the S.D.S. who are destroying everything their depraved minds can conceive of, and so many of the courts continuing to release these trained killers on bond to further their plans of our destruction, it is easy to see, that the Christian Purge is on, and it's our people who are being sentenced to prison without any form of justice; leaving behind our beautiful families who will have no chance against these hoards of neurotic maniacs who are so hopped up on drugs that their only thoughts are destruction, murder and sex.

OH, GOD, COULD ALL THIS REALLY HAPPEN???

POTPOURRI

By JOHN SULLIVAN

MIAMI — Meyer Lansky, reputedly the most powerful criminal in the United States, has been living in Israel for the past four months. Unconfirmed reports say that he will soon apply for Israeli citizenship. Lansky was recently acquitted on a charge of drug possession. Israel is the world's largest supplier of L.S.D. Whether Lansky's move is tied in with the international narcotics trade or is the result of pressure against organized crime in America has not yet been determined.

NEW YORK—A Brandeis University professor claims that Jews fleeing the Romans in the Middle East may have discovered America. A few years ago they were spreading rumors that Columbus was a Jew. What next?

NEW YORK—Dysautonomia is a disease that is diagnosed as a "disturbed function of the autonomic nervous system." A child born with it can burn himself or break a bone without feeling pain and is always in danger of strangulation. There is no cure for it and the victim invariably dies. Dysautonomia only attack Jews. Ironically Jews have been telling us that they are a religion not a race. In spite of all the facts to the contrary Jewish revolutionaries and sick liberal equality primitives will go on prattling that there is no such thing as race. A similar phenomenon is found in sickle-cell-anemia which is found only in Negroes. If susceptibility to these conditions can be transmitted by heredity, is it not possible that other forms of mental and physical instability are characteristic of certain races?

NEW YORK—Mayor John Lindsay has finally cracked down on crime. Twenty-five push-cart peddlers who were operating without licenses were apprehended. Of course muggers, rapists, murderers and drug addicts are still relatively free of harassment. But after all they belong to "disadvantaged minorities" and are therefore blameless. But those dangerous peddlers...

Speaking of Lindsay: some months ago his honor refused to see a delegation of property owners who wanted to discuss tax matters because he was in conference with a band of hippies who were protesting "police brutality."

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Senator George McGovern long a hero to the Left because of his dove stance on Vietnam is now being raked over the coals by his former friends. McGovern opposes sale of bombers to Israel.
